

his Privacy Policy explains how Mobikoo ("we," "us," or "our") collects, uses, shares, and protects your personal information when you use our mobile application, website, or services (collectively referred to as the "Services"). By using our Services, you agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree with this policy, please do not use our Services.

We collect various types of information to provide and improve our Services. This includes personal information such as your name, email address, phone number, device information, payment details (if applicable), and location data (if you grant permission). We also collect non-personal information, such as usage data, diagnostic data, and aggregated or anonymized data that cannot be used to identify you. Personal information is collected to provide and improve our Services, process transactions, and communicate with you, while non-personal information helps us analyze trends, improve functionality, and enhance user experience.

We use your information to provide, maintain, and improve our Services, process transactions, communicate with you, personalize your experience, monitor usage trends, and address technical or fraudulent issues. We do not sell your personal information. However, we may share it with your consent, with trusted third-party service providers who assist us in operating our Services, or for legal reasons such as complying with laws, regulations, or legal processes. In the event of a business transfer, such as a merger or acquisition, your information may be transferred as part of that transaction, and we will notify you of any such changes.

We take reasonable measures to protect your information from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure. These measures include encryption of sensitive data, regular security audits, and access controls. However, no method of transmission over the internet or electronic storage is 100% secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute security.

Depending on your location, you may have certain rights regarding your personal information. These include the right to access and correct your information, request deletion, opt out of marketing communications, request data portability, and withdraw consent. To exercise these rights, please contact us at [Insert Contact Information]. If you are located outside the region where our servers are located, your information may be transferred to and processed in countries with different data protection laws. We will take steps to ensure your information receives adequate protection in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

Our Services are not intended for children under the age of 13 (or the applicable age of consent in your jurisdiction). We do not knowingly collect personal information from children. If we become aware that we have collected personal information from a child, we will take steps to delete it.

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. If we make material changes, we will notify you by email or through our Services. Your continued use of the Services after the changes take effect constitutes your acceptance of the updated Privacy Policy.
